Reminders

- If your child is going to be absent, please can you ring/message us before the session they are due to attend.
- If you are given a story sack then please return it within a week, so we can offer it to another family.
- We are running low on our spare clothes, especially socks and joggers. If you have any of preschool's property, please may you return. Or any donations is much appreciated.
- World Book Day is on 7/3/24 and the theme is 'Get Cosy', children can come to school in pyjamas and comfortable clothes!

After half term we will be:

- Making Pizza when we learn the phoneme 'p'.
- Incubating some chick eggs in the classroom and watching what happens to them.
- Learning about animals that come from eggs.
- Learning about Easter

- Continuing with 'Dough Disco' and 'Squiggle whilst you wiggle'.
- Matching amounts to 5 to the correct numeral.

Special Notes

- We ask you kindly, please can you refrain from ringing into preschool for daily updates on your child, this means a member of staff is taken out of the play provision. If they were particularly upset/distressed at drop off then we will update you anyway.
- 14th March will be a parent/child Easter egg hunt in preschool. This will take place in the morning, so if your child attends an afternoon then you can still come and join in. More details to follow!
